

bleeding enough, and we were going to do it again.
He made me pick up the knife again and cut slowly.
At that he was very agitated and struck me on my right side head above the temple. ~~I felt him my knife and for a~~ ~~He got the knife under the butt. I fell down and he~~ told me to get up while pulling me up from my back to my knees and then he took the knife and ran it real slow across my neck and then he hit my head on the countertop hard enough that I fell, and I acted like I passed out.
He left through the pantry door. I waited a couple minutes and called 9-1-1.
